Levan Thurman led the song; Bill Dooley led the Pledge and John Johnson the Prayer. Announcements: Bill Dooley announced he is selling the 90th Anniversary Coins and encourages all to get one before he runs out of them. The coin celebrates our 90th year as a Kiwanis Club. MOARK District is reaching its 100th year in the year 2015. This speaks well for the Richmond Club that you are now a part of. The club that founded us in 1923, Excelsior Springs, is no longer an active club. We in turn helped Carrollton start their club showing that we have a rich Kiwanis history we need to keep going.

Announcement: Ed Hughes thanked the club for allowing him to represent us at the District Convention at St. Louis last weekend. He met the Governor and Governor-Elect and more. He really got a lot out of the meetings and encouraged others to go to the next District MOARK Convention held the first week of August in 2013. Thanks Ed for representing us at the convention.
