Pat Mills is the brand new Ray County Senior Center Director. She has been on the job 7 days now and is learning everyday what all is involved. Since she is a willing worker and fast learner so it is working out quite well.

Pat gave us a schedule of activities and invited all to come and enjoy the facility formerly called the Eagleton Center. She said you can come and play cards; work out with the gym equipment in the exercise room. They also have a weekly schedule of activities you can call the center at 470-5805 for that schedule. The Center serves noon meals 5 days a week except for holidays all are invited disabled or 50 years of age at $2.50 per meal, they serve an average of 30 meals at the Center. They also deliver meals to about 45 persons a day. This service is called "Meals on Wheels serving Richmond, Orrick and Hardin. There are only 2 paid employees by the County of Ray in that facility. Thanks be to the Ray County Fellowship Center for all the good that you do.
