March 19, 2013 Kiwanis: " Changing the world one child and one community at a time." J. McCarter, Secretary

The meeting was called to order at the 19th Hole Restaurant by President Marti Cowherd with 20 members present. Also present: Guests, Mark McCarter guest of Lynn Hicks and Jerry McCarter, Lynnsey Shade, guest of Marti Cowherd.

Our traditional opening agenda went as follows: John Richardson led the song; Ed Hughes led the Pledge and Ron Brohammer the Prayer.

Announcements:

- We passed the Hat for the Washington DC Trip. This brought in $92.50.
- Larry Goodloe reported on the interclub with the Key Club and recommended we find a way to assist the club anyway we can. He thought a good start might be the Key Club Pledge to kind of give them an official opening service. We are very thankful that the Key Club is there to help with training for leadership roles of the officers.
- Marti reminded everyone that the Governor's conference is at Fennigan's Restaurant this Saturday from 10 til 2 with 3 members signed up: JoEllen Dale, Jerry McCarter and herself. We will meet at the UCPC Church Parking lot at 9 am. The conference lasts until 2 pm.

Chairperson, Vickie McGinnis. Vickie introduced our program by introducing a couple very familiar faces, Glenda Reynolds and Beverly Holloway who are organizing the Relay for Life for 2013.

It was good to see them back in our midst again.

Glenda and Beverly took turns telling about the upcoming Richmond Relay for Life. Glenda led off by telling why it was so important to her. She had lost her husband, Brice four years ago to cancer and it has had additionally affected other people around her. She is doing everything she can to find a cure. She said 1 of every 3 women get cancer and 1 of every 2 men are get cancer. Those are not good odds for something so cruel to a body. There are lots of ways to support the Relay for Life. First by participating in the annual event held this year on the Square for the first time on Friday, June 7th from 7 pm to 6 am. You can support the event by participating, luminaries will be available to purchase by individuals as well as team signs. Come and be a part of this wonderful event to help find a cure for cancer.

Today's 50/50 lotto winner was: JoEllen Dale.
