November 6, 2012 Kiwanis: " Changing the world one child and one community at a time."

J. McCarter,

The meeting was called to order at the 19th Hole Restaurant by President Marti Cowherd with 17 members present. Levan Thurman led the song; Mac Proffitt led the Pledge and John Johnson the Prayer.

Announcements: We received post cards of thanks from Senator Pearce for his warm welcome and the Outlaw Committee for our donation of $100 to Outlaw Days Committee

President Marti shared information on the Eliminate Project advising that if each member of the club makes a donation to the Eliminate Project the club can receive a banner patch. Each member was given a gift/pledge form.

Trick or Treat Street Chairman, Chris Brown reported on the City's Halloween project advising that the club ran out of the 700 hotdogs by 7:30. He also complimented the club on having plenty of Kiwanis Workers available to serve the "Hotdogs" and drinks. All of which were donated by Shirkey's. Thanks Chris.

Today's Sergeant at Arms, Chris Brown assessed the following fines: Missed meetings: F. G. Weary.

Picture in the paper with Terrific Kids: Marti Cowherd. Last one in: Don Kerin.

Other fines: Not serving at Trick or Treat Street: Bill Dooley, Levan Thurman, Don Kerin, Ron Brohammer, JoEllen Dale, John Johnson, and Steve Meyer.
